

No Need to Hide

You no longer need to hide
Your tears and sad memories
Try to forget youthful adventures
Or deny the excitement of the ride

You know you're in love
Your eyes cannot hide
And love is taking you away
Deep in a stormy sea
Where only you and I can see

Where life is a fantasy
A wonderful flowering tree
And dreams are true
Just like me and you

No need to refer to us
As you and me
We're united by love
And its boundless sea
I inspire the heart of you
You inspire the mind of me

Dreams always fly
To hug memories that cry
For sympathy and love
But fail to stop and try
The only, lonely love

That never asks why

Love is pure joy in the heart

Heaven for lovers to try

A bouquet of flowers on the lips

That bloom and never die

A beautiful song in the eye

That smiles and cry

Never daring never shy

An ocean that colors the sky

You can dream alone

Sail day and night

And go everywhere

But without true love

You reach nowhere

Fate is what we make of life

And love is the lifeboat

That makes life so bright

Days to be remembered

Memories to be cherished

That make night a sea of light
