

It Isn't Fair

It isn't fair
My loving woman said
To live here lonely
While you're lonely there

To dream all night long
Sail in the darkness alone
Try to go places you love
When no one is there to share
Your thoughts and feelings
Loneliness takes you nowhere

Yes, my loving friend
Life is never fair
When live in a far away place
Separated from those you love
And for whom you truly care

When you long so much for a kiss
A hug and a warm smile
To fill the emptiness of the night
And cool the summer air

Only when love and joy
And happy memories are there
Embracing each other with flair
That living becomes so beautiful
And life special and fair

So, darling

Let our dreams have a busy day

Dream of a magical way

To arrange a special reunion

And plan for a wonderful fair

For us to hug, kiss and dance

Enjoy the freshness of the air

Feel the joy of togetherness

Treasure the memories of the day

And forever share
